

Check Your Knowledge!

As you have now learned some of the commonly-used phrasal verbs with go, it's time to check your knowledge about it. Complete the sentences by filling in the correct phrasal verb with go in the blanks, observing their correct form. Choose the phrasal verbs with go from the box.

1. We are planning to go out for dinner this weekend.
2. It's hard to buy new clothes these days; the prices have gone up.
3. Going away is not the best solution to your problems.
4. When are you going back to your hometown?
5. I know you are going through some problems, but remember to smile.
6. She was scared when her phone's battery went off last week.
7. Please go over with your notes before we start the test.
8. Despite his anxiety attack yesterday, the reporter went on with his report.
9. I pray that the inflation rate will go down in the near future.
10. The police went after the thief who stole my necklace.